

Free Judeism - The Book of the Free Jews

Foreword

This book is the sacred text of the religion Free Judeism.

Free Judeism arises from a deep desire to believe in what Yeshua (Jesus Christ) Himself believed and preached — not in a religion later created in His name, which He never sought.

It is the path of freedom, conscience, and spiritual truth — rooted in Jewish tradition but open to anyone who seeks God with a sincere heart. Free Judeism unites the wisdom of the Torah, the teachings of the Master, and the power of a personal connection with God.

Book 1: The Beginning of the Path

In the beginning, there was Seeking. And Seeking gave birth to the Question. And the Question opened the human heart to the Invisible. And God was there — not in the words, but in the silence between them.

And God said: 'I am here. And in you.'

Man asked: 'Who are You?' God replied: 'I am who I am...'

Book 2: The Words of the Teacher

'I did not come to destroy, but to restore. The Law is a path, but when it becomes a prison — tear down its walls.'

'Blessed are not those who know much, but those who love quietly. God is not in the temple, but in your heart.'

Book 3: Freedom

'Do not be a slave to words, but their servant. Do not be a slave to ritual, but a bearer of its meaning.'

Free is the one who is not afraid to ask. Free is the one who follows their conscience, even alone.

Book 4: The Path and the Community

Gather not in fear, but in joy. Celebrate life. Do not judge another — each walks their own way to the Source.

Prayer is not obligation but conversation. God hears even in silence.

Book 5: The Final Word

You were not created for fear, but for truth. Not for guilt, but for love. Not for bondage, but for freedom.

And when you no longer ask 'Where is God?', you will know — He has always been in You.
